

RECLAIMED PLANK PREMIUM HEART PINE

Wide Plank Flooring

The many attributes to Reclaimed Long Leaf Pine have stood the test of time and make it one of the most popular reclaimed floors. The warm richness of color and durability of its heart wood is undeniably the most recognizable of these traits. The varying grades can give you an elegant to a rustic country floor. We have pre-finished many Reclaimed Heart Pine plank floors and the warmth of this heart wood always prevails in the rich patina achieved by multiple coats of tung oil.

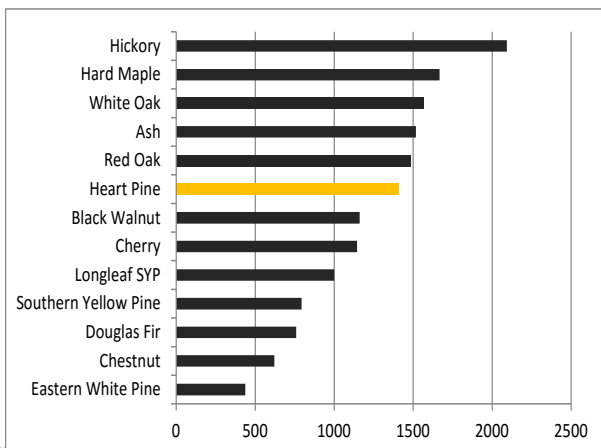

The classic look of a reclaimed heart pine floor is found within Bingham's premium grade flooring. Our skilled graders blend the entire "cut" of what the salvaged timbers have to offer into the grade. You will find clear boards, knotty boards, and some vertical grain blended together creating a warm and inviting floor. Color variations, sound knot structure, and a few drying checks enhance the natural beauty of the floor. Subtle nail holes and other characteristics telling of the floors history contribute in making this our most popular grade of antique heart pine
